5-MINUTE ENGLISH LAB / FML-0010 / 01

The message

Your manager writes: ‘Please send the revised rota by Friday.’ You need the exact deadline before promising delivery.

02 / THE DIFFERENCE

5-MINUTE ENGLISH LAB / FML-0010 / 02

The two readings

Picture a line running toward Friday. ‘By Friday’ points to the line’s end: finish before or at that boundary. ‘On Friday’ circles Friday itself: the event happens that day. Adding ‘3 p.m.’ makes the boundary visible.

03 / CONFIRM IT

5-MINUTE ENGLISH LAB / FML-0010 / 05

The check

Just to confirm, do you need it before Friday starts, or anytime on Friday?

By 3 p.m. Friday, please.

Understood. I'll send it no later than 3 p.m. Friday.

04 / YOUR TURN

Your turn

COLLEAGUE

Ask for Tuesday’s cutoff. Then give your delivery plan.

A colleague writes: ‘Can you share the figures by Tuesday?’

Write one reply. Confirm the cutoff. Then state when you plan to send the figures.
