

ENGLISH, POWER, ACCESS

Empire, Classrooms, English

POWER CREATED INCENTIVES

05 / 12

Empire linked English to power

COURTS

Official access

Rules shaped participation.

SCHOOLS

Credentials

Lessons shaped advancement.

JOBS

Opportunity

English gained rewards.

Policies varied across colonies.

India, 1835: funding changed

MACAULAY MINUTE

1835

A policy argument.

FUNDING

Minute urged redirection.

HIGHER STUDY

English gained priority.

INTERMEDIARIES

An elite was proposed.

One minute was not empire.

India, 1854: layered schooling

PRIMARY

Vernacular teaching

HIGHER

English instruction

EMPLOYMENT

English advantage

English-only is inaccurate.

Access still stayed unequal.

Classrooms sorted opportunities

MANY

Local communities

FEWER

School access

FEWER

English higher study

FEWEST

Preferred employment

Access shaped outcomes.

Resistance reshaped English

GANDHI

Critiqued English education.

TACTIC

English also carried dissent.

OUTCOME

Speakers changed English.

Resistance took several forms.

Rejection was never universal.

English became Englishes

Difference is not failure.

Sources and limits

Macaulay, 1835

Funding argument

Wood's Despatch

Layered policy

Gandhi, 1909

Education critique

Kachru and ICE

World Englishes

EVIDENCE

INFERENCE

UNPROVEN

NEXT: Why English dominated